

Curriculum Intent

To provide all of our children with knowledge that will enable them to make informed decisions about their well-being health and relationships. This will ensure that they are ready to embrace the challenges of creating a happy and successful adult life in modern Britain. To ensure high quality teaching and learning through a coherently planned curriculum which provides children opportunities to learn new skills, practise and apply embedded skills and allows children quality time to reflect on what it means to them.

Implementation

The Programme of Study has been taken from the PSHE association and adapted to fit the needs of the children across Hales Valley Trust. It includes suggested resources, training and quality key texts and is supported by the United Nations Convention of the rights of the child (UNCRC).

The Programme of study is broken down into three core themes:

- Core theme 1. Relationships (R) – Autumn Term
- Core theme 2. Living in the Wider World (L) – Spring Term
- Core theme 3. Health and Wellbeing (H) – Summer Term

Each term will have a core theme focus to ensure consistency across year groups and phases and to provide a clear progression from EYFS to Year 6. Assemblies, focus days and other whole school events can be centred around the core themes.

Autumn: Relationships			Spring: Living in the wider world			Summer: Health and Wellbeing
Families and friendships	Safe relationships	Respecting ourselves and others	Belonging to a community	Media literacy and digital resilience	Money and work	Physical health and Mental wellbeing	Growing and changing	Keeping safe

The Programme of Study ensures thorough coverage of the statutory guidance set out by the Department for Education for Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) and Health Education. This has been embedded within the Programme of Study whilst ensuring a broad and balanced curriculum is being delivered.

Supporting resources

The Programme of Study is supported by a bank of quality resources including core texts, websites and programmes.

Skills Builder

The Skills Builder framework builds essential skills to prepare children for success both in school and beyond. Teachers can audit their class' competence in each skill and tailor sessions accordingly through short sessions, discussion and projects. Many of our key objectives from across the 3 core themes can be taught using skills builder as a context.

Partnership for Children – Skills for life programmes

Zippy's friends is taught in EYFS and KS1, Apples friends is taught in LKS2 and Passport is taught in UKS2. The programmes are evidence based, social, emotional and well-being programmes which develop skills for life. The majority of this Programme of Study is supported by the delivery of each programme.

Quality Key Texts

Reading is at the heart of the PSHE curriculum and is a key element in the delivery of the Programme of Study. Quality texts have been sourced to underpin each key question and will enable staff to pitch each theme at the right level.

Making sure that children are taught about how to keep themselves safe.

Article 19 Governments must do all they can to ensure that children are protected from all forms of violence, abuse, neglect and bad treatment by their parents or anyone else who looks after them.

The Legal Context for Safeguarding Education

These duties are set out in the 2002 Education Act (the 2010 Academies Act also refers to the broad and balanced curriculum). Schools also have statutory responsibilities in relation to promoting pupil wellbeing and pupil safeguarding (Children Act 2004) and community cohesion (Education Act 2006). The Equality Act 2010 also places duties on schools to help to reduce prejudice-based bullying and in doing so to keep protected characteristic groups safe. PSHE education plays an important part in fulfilling all the responsibilities (see further detail on PSHE education and safeguarding, below).

All schools have responsibilities relating to the safety of children in their care. Paragraph 41 of statutory guidance - Keeping Children Safe in Education, the Department for Education states:

“Schools should consider how children may be taught about safeguarding, including online, through teaching and learning opportunities. This may include covering relevant issues through PSHE ...”

Our PSHE Programme of Study has been taken from the PSHE association and adapted to fit the needs of the children at Lutley. It includes suggested resources, training and quality key texts and is supported by the United Nations Convention of the rights of the child (UNCRC) and Keeping Children Safe in Education.

The Programme of study is broken down into three core themes:

- Core theme 1. Relationships – Autumn Term
- Core theme 2. Living in the Wider World – Spring Term
- Core theme 3. Health and Wellbeing – Summer Term

UN Convention on the Rights of the Child In Child Friendly Language

A collaborative
Children's Week Project of the
ACT Children's Week Committee

dhcs IACT
Office for Children, Youth and Family Support

"Rights" are things that every child should have or be able to do. All children have the same rights. These rights are listed in the United Nations (UN) Convention on the Rights of the Child. Almost every country has agreed to these rights. All the rights are connected to each other, and all are equally important. Sometimes, we have to think about the rights in terms of what is the best for children in a situation, and what is critical to life and protection from harm. As you grow, you have more responsibility to make choices and exercise your rights.

Article 1
Everyone under 18 has these rights.

Article 2
All children have these rights, no matter who they are, where they live, what their parents do, what language they speak, what their religion is, whether they are a boy or girl, what their culture is, whether they have a disability, whether they are rich or poor. No child should be treated unfairly on any basis.

Article 3
All adults should do what is best for you. When adults make decisions, they should think about how their decisions will affect children.

Article 4
The government has a responsibility to make sure your rights are protected. They must help your family to protect your rights and create an environment where you can grow and reach your potential.

Article 5
Your family has the responsibility to help you learn to exercise your rights, and to ensure that your rights are protected.

Article 6
You have the right to be alive.

Article 7
You have the right to a name, and this should be officially recognised by the government. You have the right to a nationality (to belong to a country).

Article 8
You have the right to an identity – an official record of who you are. No one should take this away from you.

Article 9
You have the right to live with your parent(s), unless it is bad for you. You have the right to live with a family who cares for you.

Article 10
If you live in a different country than your parents do, you have the right to be together in the same place.

Article 11
You have the right to be protected from kidnapping.

Article 12
You have the right to give your opinion, and for adults to listen and take it seriously.

Article 13
You have the right to find out things and share what you think with others, by talking, drawing, writing or in any other way unless it harms or offends other people.

Article 14
You have the right to choose your own religion and beliefs. Your parents should help you decide what is right and wrong, and what is best for you.

Article 15
You have the right to choose your own friends and join or set up groups, as long as it isn't harmful to others.

Article 16
You have the right to privacy.

Article 17
You have the right to get information that is important to your well being, from radio, newspaper, books, computers and other sources. Adults should make sure that the information you are getting is not harmful, and help you find and understand the information you need.

Article 18
You have the right to be raised by your parent(s) if possible.

Article 19

Article 40
You have the right to legal help and fair treatment in the justice system that respects your rights.

Article 41
If the laws of your country provide better protection of your right than the articles in this Convention, those laws should apply.

Article 42
You have the right to know your rights! Adults should know about these rights and help you learn about them, too.

Article 43 to 54
These articles explain how governments and international organisations like UNICEF will work to ensure children are protected with their rights.

Be smart on the internet

SAFE

Keep safe by being careful not to give out personal information – such as your full name, email address, phone number, home address, photos or school name – to people you are chatting with online.

M

MEETING

Meeting someone you have only been in touch with online can be dangerous. Only do so with your parents' or carers' permission and even then only when they can be present.

ACCEPTING

Accepting emails, IM messages, or opening files, pictures or texts from people you don't know or trust can lead to problems – they may contain viruses or nasty messages!

R

RELIABLE

Information you find on the internet may not be true, or someone online may be lying about who they are.

TELL

Tell your parent, carer or a trusted adult if someone or something makes you feel uncomfortable or worried, or if you or someone you know is being bullied online.

You can report online abuse to the police at www.thinkuknow.co.uk
