Introduction

Hales Valley Trust strongly believes that attendance and punctuality are vital for a child to maximise their personal and academic development and create a feeling of belonging within their class and school community. We ensure that our policy and procedures actively promote attendance and punctuality amongst children and their families and this forms part of our commitment to respect the right of every child, under the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, to a quality education (Article 28).

Our attendance policy is rooted in a recognition-based approach that recognises both personal and collective achievements as well as barriers to attendance. This policy and related practice serves to prevent victimisation, cultivate positive environments, nurture relationships, foster inclusivity, and ultimately develop intrinsic motivation among our children, families, and staff.

In promoting the belief that attendance and punctuality are important, we help equip our children for future success by adapting a multi-tiered system of support.

A Multi-Tiered System of Support

To guarantee a comprehensive approach to attendance, Lutley implement a Multi-Tiered System of Support. A Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) for school attendance involves three tiers of intervention, with roles for teachers, the school, children, parents, and external agencies – including the Local Authority. Data-driven decision-making and training requirements are pivotal to the implementation of this system. The system aligns with the Department for Education's (DFE) "Working Together to Improve School Attendance" statutory paper 2024.

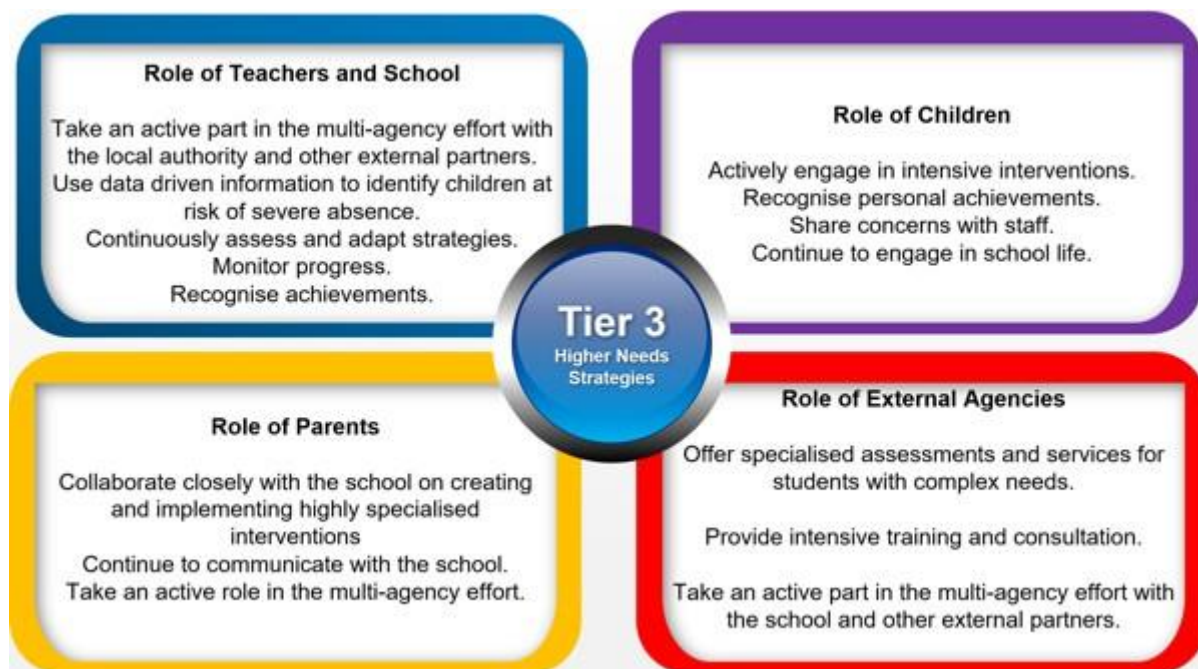

Tier 1 - Universal Approach: Establishing a baseline universal attendance approach that benefits all children.

Tier 2 – Internal individualised Strategies and Early Help Support: Tailoring strategies to individual needs and providing early help support for persistent attendance challenges.

Tier 3 - Higher Needs Strategies Support: Providing specialised support for children, young people, and families with complex attendance requirements, including access to external agency support when necessary.

The Importance of School Attendance

School attendance is not merely a requirement but a fundamental pillar of education. It plays a pivotal role in shaping academic success, personal growth, and future prospects, making it an indispensable aspect of any educational system. Regular attendance to school can have a significant impact on:

- Academic Achievement: Regular attendance directly links with academic success. Children who attend school consistently are more likely to keep up with the curriculum, perform better in exams, and improve their life outcomes. Recent DFE research, The link between attendance and attainment in an assessment year (March 2025) state:
 - At both KS2 the higher the attendance band a pupil is in during the assessment year, the more likely they were to achieve a successful outcome.
 - At KS2, pupils who attended school nearly every day in Year 6 (with an attendance rate of 95-100%) were 1.3 times more likely to achieve the expected standard in reading, writing and maths compared to pupils who only attended 90-95% of the time. This means missing just 10 days of year 6 reduced the likelihood of reaching the expected standard by around 25%.
- Knowledge Acquisition: School is where children gain knowledge and skills that are crucial for their personal and professional growth. Missing days means missing out on valuable learning opportunities.
- Social Development: School provides a vital social environment our children to interact with peers, develop friendships, and learn essential social skills. Consistent attendance ensures children remain connected to their peer group.
- Building Routine: School attendance establishes a structured routine in children’s lives, teaching them time management and responsibility, which are valuable life skills. Recent DFE publication, Year on year change in pupil attendance research report (May 2025) states that children who develop poor attendance patterns are more likely to continue having poor attendance across their education.
- Teacher Interaction: Regular attendance allows for meaningful teacher-child interactions. Teachers can provide personalised support, address questions, and assess individual progress more effectively when children attend regularly.
- Preventing Knowledge Gaps: Frequent absences can lead to significant knowledge gaps, making it challenging for children to catch up with missed lessons, potentially resulting in long-term academic struggles.

- School Engagement: Children who attend school regularly are more likely to engage in extracurricular activities, sports, and other enriching experiences that contribute to their overall development.
- Legal and Parental Responsibility: Parents or guardians are legally responsible for ensuring their child's regular school attendance. Failing to do so can lead to legal consequences.
- Community Well-being: High levels of school attendance contribute to the overall well-being of communities.

Attendance and Punctuality Expectations at Lutley

At Lutley, we have high expectations of both attendance and punctuality. We expect every child to be in school on time everyday as far as possible. However, we are aware that at times a child may need time off school and are understanding to the factors that may influence absence from school. Where attendance begins to be a concern we will take action and more through the tiers of support.

The academic school year is 190 days. This is every child's legal entitlement. These are recorded as 380 sessions (one am and pm session per day). Schools are also required to have an additional 5 In Service Training (INSET) days that are used for staff training.

Support from the school will be triggered by:

- a decline in attendance patterns;
- children approaching or hitting the new national attendance threshold;
- unusual attendance patterns (for example, regular absence on a Friday);
- children at risk of becoming persistently absent (below 90%, 19 days or 38 sessions across a school year);
- children that are already persistently absent or severely absent.

At Lutley Primary School, we recognise high attendance levels in the following ways:

- Weekly sharing of winning classes in assembly
- Weekly attendance headlines celebrated with parents through the attendance newsflash
- House points for high attendance on a weekly and monthly basis
- Additional point given to the best house attendance each week which contributes to house competition
- Termly certificate for high attendance
- Improving attendance recognition given through phone calls home, certificates, praise
- postcards

Factors Influencing Attendance

We will work with Parents/Carers to support the attendance of their child. The first priority is to understand if there are any in-school barriers, and then to discuss with Parents/Carers any wider context that may be affecting attendance.

Where the needs and barriers are individual to the child, specific support may be established, for example, pastoral check-ins, meet and greets, interventions and/or breakfast provision. If a child has an allocated social worker, we will inform them if there are any unexplained absences and work closely with any agencies involved with the child.

There are many factors which can impact on a child attending school:

- Health Issues: Children may experience physical or mental health issues that lead to absences. Chronic illnesses, infections, and mental health conditions can impact a student's ability to attend school regularly. The school has a Medical Policy that contains information about time authorised for specific illnesses in line with the Public Health guidelines.
- Family Circumstances: Family-related factors such as bereavement, family illness, or caring responsibilities can result in absences from school. I

- Socioeconomic Factors: Families facing financial difficulties may struggle to provide necessary resources for their children to attend school regularly. Issues such as lack of appropriate clothing, food, or a stable home environment can contribute to absenteeism.
- Academic Challenges: Students facing academic difficulties or feeling overwhelmed may avoid school. They may fear falling behind or failing in their school work.
- Cultural and Language Barriers: Children from diverse backgrounds may face challenges related to language barriers or cultural differences. These challenges can affect their attendance and engagement with school.
- Parental Involvement: Parental support and involvement in a child's education can positively influence attendance. Lack of parental engagement may lead to increased absenteeism.

If you have any concerns regarding any of the above areas, please contact the school as soon as possible.

Supporting Attendance at Lutley

Understanding the specific factors influencing attendance for individual children and families is essential for developing targeted interventions and support systems aimed at improving attendance outcomes.

To effectively address any identified attendance concerns, Lutley will implement a variety of strategies, including early intervention, support for vulnerable families, tailored intervention programs, and fostering a positive and inclusive school environment.

The following approaches may be employed to support families: phone calls, home visits, letters, Early Help referrals, in-school meetings, Cherry Tree support, assistance from the local family hubs, Education Support Service support, Inclusive Pathways, school admission services, and housing support.

Day-to-Day Processes for Managing Attendance at Lutley.

Late to school

- Registration starts at 8.45am and finishes at 9.00am.
- If a child arrives for registration in the classroom before 8.50am they will be marked as present code (/ - please see appendix 1 for attendance code descriptions)
- If a child does not get to the classroom for registration before 9.00 am then they will receive the late code (L)
- If a child arrives after thirty minutes of registration, they will be marked as an unauthorised late (U)
- If a child is late due to doctors/medical appointment, Parents/Carers should make the school aware of this
- The school will monitor late marks for individual children and will contact and support Parents/Carers in ensuring that the child arrives to school on time
- If your child is late more than 5 times, we will write to you and discuss ways to support improved punctuality

Absence reporting, first day calling & safeguarding

- If your child is going to be absent from school, it is vital that you inform the school by calling the school office or logging the absence on Parentmail, as early as possible (before 9.30am) to let the school know your child will not be in school – 01384 818220. The school has a dedicated answer phone system for registering your child's absence (option 1) or via Parentmail.
- This needs to be done every day of absence (unless your child is admitted to hospital, or has a long-term illness-related absence for a period of time – in this instance you do not need to ring every day).
- If your child is not in school and we have not had a phone call by 9.30am, the school will contact you to find out why your child is not in school.
- Where no contact is made the school will try to make contact through other contact numbers held.
- Where there continues to be a lack of contact voice messages, e-mails and home visits will be conducted. Where there are ongoing concerns, safe and well checks will be conducted by the police.

Late collection at the end of the school day or after school events

- The school day ends at 3.30pm and children should be collected on time. Parents/carers will be given 10 minutes grace at the end of the school day to collect their child/children. After this time, children will be taken to the main school office for collection.
- When children are collected from the main school office, parents/carers will be required to sign them out using the Inventory system. This will be recorded as making a late collection.
- We accept that on rare occasions a parent/carer may be late to collect their child due to unforeseen circumstances. When these times occur, it is expected that parents/carers would inform the school by calling the school office.
- It is not the duty of the school to provide childcare after the end of the school day and where late collection is a regular occurrence, records will be maintained by the school, concerns discussed, and charges applied. This will take place after 3 recorded late collections. Please see appendix 3 for details of charges.

Leave of Absence Request

All parents/carers must complete a 'Leave of Absence' form, in advance of any known and planned leave at least 15 school days before the intention take their child out of school. This can be done by completing and returning a 'leave of absence' form to the Headteacher. Leave of absence requests can only be made by the parent/carer with parental rights.

It is an expectation of Hales Valley Trust that a leave of absence shall not be granted in term time unless there are exceptional circumstances (Code Y1 to Y7) or regulated performance. (Code C1) Holidays, weddings, milestone birthdays etc...are not exceptional circumstances.

Hales Valley Trust encourages parents to make appointments out of school hours. Where this is not possible, they should get the school's agreement in advance and the pupil should only be out of school for the minimum amount of time necessary for the appointment.

When a child has had at least 5 days/10 continuous sessions of holiday unauthorised absence (coded G) the school has a duty to make a referral to the Education Support Service at Dudley Council.

School Closures

The Headteacher will make every effort to ensure that the school remains open for 190 days of the academic school year. However, in some circumstances, e.g. severe weather, the school may have to close. The Headteacher must always consider the health, safety and welfare of every person who uses the school site, children, staff, parents/carers, volunteers and visitors. If at any point, use of the school building would be detrimental to a person or persons' health, safety and welfare, then the Headteacher must close part or all of the school.

If a decision is made to close part or all of the school, the Headteacher will endeavour to inform parents/carers of that decision and the details of any arrangements that have been put in place. The register for those children affected is closed for the day and coded as an enforced school closure. This does not affect a child's attendance record.

Parents/Carers should always assume that the school will remain open during term time unless told otherwise.

Strategies for Using Data to Target Attendance Improvement Efforts at Lutley

Throughout the year attendance is tracked and analysed in a range of different ways:

- The whole school cohort, year group, class and house level
- Additional pupil groups including vulnerable pupils
- Pupils who have an allocated social worker or are known to social care.
- Individual pupil level
 - Pupils at risk of being persistently absent
 - Pupils who are persistently absent
 - Pupils who are severely absent
 - Pupils who are at risk of hitting the national attendance threshold
 - Pupils who have been persistently or severely absent in previous academic years
- All tracked pupils attendance will be checked for triggers for referrals:
 - National Threshold – 10 sessions unauthorised in 10 week period (Coded N, U, O, G)
 - Dudley ESS thresholds – 12 sessions unauthorised in 12 weeks (Coded N,U, O, G)
 - LOA referral – 5 days or more Leave of absence unauthorised (age 5 years+)

Strategy for Reducing Absence at Lutley

We will closely monitor children whose absence level gives us concern. We will notify families in relation to concerns and provide increasing levels of support as detailed below. Communications will be timely, appropriate and sensitive to the circumstances of the families involved at any point in time. Records will be maintained using the CPOMS platform.

- Tier 1 – Universal Support - Initial concerns –informal engagement via teachers and/or pastoral support.
- Tier 2 – Individualised Strategies - Initial support –individualised strategies commence which could include initial support letter, a phone call or face to face conversations.
- Tier 2 – Individualised Strategies - Focused support – provision stays at tier two, individualised strategies continue but become more formalised. A focussed support letter will be sent and attendance support plan (See Appendix 4) will be completed. The meeting will focus upon barriers to attendance, agreed support, actions and targets. A review meeting/discussion date will be arranged.

- Tier 3 – Higher Needs Strategies - Intensive support – provision moves to tier three where progress is continuously assessed, and strategies adapted. A multi-agency approach may be required, and intensive support letter will be sent, and formal legal options may be considered.

Pupils at Risk of Becoming Persistently Absent

At Lutley Primary School, we utilise the tiered support approach to avoid persistent absence (19 days/38 sessions) across an academic school year. We monitor attendance both within each term and across the school year.

The following table identifies the thresholds across the year and within each term to identify the level of support provided.

Details of the National Framework for Penalty Notices

As a result of national concerns linked to pupil attendance in school, new statutory regulations and penalty notice fines have been introduced. These legal changes were implemented on the 19th August 2024. One of the fundamental changes, was the introduction of a new national attendance threshold.

National Attendance Threshold - 10 sessions (5 days) of unauthorised absence within any rolling 10-week period (this could span across terms and year groups and consist of lateness after registers have closed)

This threshold will be instantly met with an unauthorised leave of absence and lead to the issuing of a penalty notice. In other scenarios, support will be put in place. However, lack of improvement or engagement could also lead to a penalty notice. The flowing flowchart gives an example of this:

Support where the national threshold has been met could come in many ways, depending upon the individual factors that are influencing the absence. This could be:

- Phone calls and letters how to discuss attendance and offer support
- Attendance success meetings – more formalised approaches in conjunction with the school to identify barriers and solutions
- An attendance contract - a formal agreement between parents and the school or local authority to address irregular attendance, providing support as an alternative to prosecution. It is not legally binding but serves as a formal route to secure engagement with support when voluntary early help plans have not worked. An attendance contract aims to offer support rather than punishment.

If voluntary support or attendance contracts are unsuccessful, a Joint Early Warning Notice (JEWN) may be issued in conjunction with Dudley School Attendance and Education Support Service. Where attendance concerns continue, an Education Supervision Order (ESO) can provide formal legal intervention without prosecution. Before proceeding with an ESO, the school and local authority Named Point of Contact (NPOC) should exhaust voluntary support options and ensure the order would benefit the pupil and parent. Persistent non-compliance with an ESO can lead to prosecution in the Magistrates Court by the local authority. Upon conviction, parents may face fines of up to £1,000.

Local authorities have the power to prosecute parents for various offences related to attendance: Failure to comply with a school attendance order may result in fines of up to £1,000. Failure to secure regular attendance at school or alternative provision may lead to fines of up to £2,500 and/or imprisonment.

Penalty notices issued will increase in for repeat offences:

The infographic consists of three blue rounded rectangular boxes stacked vertically, each containing text about penalty notices. The first box is titled 'First Offence' and states that a penalty notice will be issued for the first time, with amounts of £160 per parent/child if paid within 28 days, or £80 if paid within 21 days. The second box is titled 'Second Offence (Within 3 Years)' and states that a second penalty notice will be issued for the second time, with a fixed amount of £160 per parent/pupil and no reduced rate. The third box is titled 'Third Offence (Within 3 Years)' and states that a third penalty notice will not be issued, and alternatives like prosecution or legal interventions will be considered. Below these three boxes is a white rectangular box with a blue border containing the text: 'Please note there will be no right of appeal against a penalty notice.'

First Offence
Penalty notice will be issued
The first time a penalty notice is issued the amount will be £160 per parent, per child if paid within 28 days or reduced to £80 per parent, per child if paid within 21 days

Second Offence (Within 3 Years)
Second penalty notice issued
The second time a penalty notice is issued the amount will be £160 per parent, per pupil. No reduced rate will be offered

Third Offence (Within 3 Years)
At this point, a third penalty notice will not be issued, and alternatives will be considered which could include prosecution and/or attendance legal interventions

Please note there will be no right of appeal against a penalty notice.

Removal from roll

This refers to the process of a child's name being officially taken off the school's register, typically due to extended non-attendance or other circumstances. A pupil's name can only be deleted from the admission register for a reason set out in regulation 9 of the School Attendance (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2024. When any of the situations or grounds set out in regulation 9 occurs, the pupil's name must be deleted. A pupil's name must not be removed for any other reason and doing so could constitute off-rolling.

Parents/Carers need to be aware that your child's name may be deleted from the school roll if they do not return to school within 10 school days of the informed return date for a Leave of Absence. The school and Local authority will jointly make reasonable efforts to find out location and circumstances and take steps to secure your child's attendance.

DfE's guidance on "Children Missing Education" sets out the expectations for schools and local authorities in respect of making reasonable efforts to find out a pupil's location and circumstances.

This action will be taken in consultation with the local authority who may agree to the removal. Upon any return you will have to reapply for admission to a school within the borough. A place at your previous school cannot be guaranteed.

Elective Home Education

Schools will inform the Local Authority of children whose Parents/Carers have notified the school in writing and have opted for Elective Home Education. School will work with the local authority to determine if the child will remain on roll or can legally be removed in line with The Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations.

Roles and Responsibilities

Improving attendance is everyone's responsibility. The barriers to accessing education are wide and complex, both within and beyond school, and are often specific to individual pupils and families. Good attendance begins with school being somewhere pupils want to be and therefore the foundation of securing good attendance is that school is a calm, orderly, safe, and supportive environment where all pupils are keen and ready to learn. (Working Together to improve school attendance Aug 2024)

Parents/carers: Where Parents/carers decide to have their child registered at school, they have an additional legal duty to ensure their child attends that school regularly. This means their child must attend every day that the school is open, except in a small number of allowable circumstances such as being too ill to attend or being given permission for an absence in advance from the school. (Working Together to improve school attendance Aug24)

Parents play a crucial role in supporting attendance. Their involvement and commitment to their child's education can have a significant impact on attendance rates.

- Establish a Routine: Parents should establish a daily routine that includes regular school attendance. Consistency in bedtime routines, waking up, getting ready for school, and arriving on time helps children develop good attendance habits.
- Communicate with the School: Establish open lines of communication with the school. Inform the school promptly if your child is going to be absent due to illness or other reasons. This helps the school keep accurate attendance records.
- Ensure a Healthy Lifestyle: Promote good health practices, including proper nutrition, regular exercise, and adequate sleep. A healthy child is less likely to miss school due to illness.
- Positive Attitude Towards Education: Encourage a positive attitude towards education. Discuss the value of school and the opportunities it provides for the child's future.
- Set Expectations: Clearly communicate your expectations about attendance to your child. Emphasise the importance of attending school regularly and on time.
- Be Involved in Homework: Support your child's learning by showing interest in their homework and school assignments. Provide a quiet, conducive space for homework.
- Attend Parent-Teacher Meetings: Participate in Parent-teacher meetings. These provide an opportunity to discuss your child's progress and address any attendance or academic concerns.
- Monitor Progress: Keep track of your child's progress and attendance. Be aware of any sudden changes in attendance patterns that may signal underlying issues.
- Address Bullying or Safety Concerns: If your child is experiencing bullying or safety concerns at school, take the issue seriously. Communicate with the school to ensure a safe and supportive environment.
- Promote a Love for Learning: Encourage curiosity and a love for learning. Explore educational activities and resources outside of school to spark your child's interest in different subjects.
- Lead by Example: Demonstrate the importance of commitment and responsibility by being punctual and dependable in your own daily activities.
- Stay Informed: Stay informed about school policies and attendance guidelines. Understand the consequences of excessive absenteeism.

- Seek Support if Needed: If your child is facing challenges that affect attendance, such as health issues or academic struggles, seek support from the school, healthcare professionals, or relevant agencies.
- Encourage Peer Relationships: Encourage your child to form positive relationships with peers. Friendships can make school a more enjoyable and supportive environment.
- Celebrate Achievements: Celebrate your child's achievements and milestones at school. Recognize their efforts and successes to boost their self-esteem and motivation.
- Collaborate with the School: Work collaboratively with the school to address any attendance issues. Explore support services or interventions if necessary.

Children: Children also play a significant role in attending school regularly and ensuring their educational success.

- Attendance Awareness: Children can develop awareness of the importance of attendance and its impact on their education. They should aim to achieve good attendance records and strive for excellent attendance.
- Punctuality: Children should strive to arrive at school on time each day. Being punctual helps them settle into the daily routine and ensures they do not miss important instructions or activities.
- Commitment to Learning: Children should recognise the value of education and commit to attending school regularly. They can understand that attending school is essential for gaining knowledge, skills, and opportunities for the future.
- Positive Attitude: Maintaining a positive attitude towards school and learning can make attending school a more enjoyable experience. Children should be open to new experiences and willing to engage in classroom activities.
- Peer Relationships: Building positive relationships with peers can make school a more welcoming place. Children should be friendly, respectful, and inclusive in their interactions with classmates.
- Healthy Lifestyle: Maintaining a healthy lifestyle through proper nutrition, regular exercise, and adequate sleep contributes to overall well-being.
- Seeking Support: If a child is facing challenges that affect attendance, such as bullying or academic difficulties, they should seek support from teachers, school counsellors, or trusted adults.

Teachers: Teachers play a vital role in monitoring and promoting school attendance. Ensuring regular and punctual attendance is essential for the academic success and well-being of children.

- Monitoring Attendance: Teachers are responsible for monitoring the daily attendance of their children. They should maintain accurate attendance records, noting both present and absent students.
- Promoting Punctuality: Teachers should encourage students to arrive at school on time each day. Punctuality is essential for a smooth start to the school day and minimises disruptions in the classroom.
- Taking Immediate Action: When a child is absent without prior notification or a valid reason, teachers should take immediate action. This may involve contacting the school's attendance officer or designated staff member to report the absence.
- Early Intervention: Teachers should identify patterns of poor attendance or lateness and intervene early to address any underlying issues. This may include communicating with the student, their parents or guardians, and relevant support services.
- Maintaining Communication: Teachers should maintain open lines of communication with parents or guardians regarding attendance. They should inform parents of any concerns about a child's attendance or punctuality.
- Providing Support: Teachers can provide academic and emotional support to children who may be experiencing attendance challenges. Identifying the root causes and addressing them proactively can help improve attendance.
- Setting Expectations: Teachers can set clear expectations for attendance and punctuality in their classrooms. This includes communicating the importance of regular attendance for learning and academic progress.
- Creating a Welcoming Classroom Environment: Teachers should strive to create a positive and welcoming classroom environment where students feel motivated and engaged. A supportive atmosphere can encourage attendance.
- Identifying Barriers: Teachers should be alert to potential barriers to attendance, such as bullying, health issues, or family problems. Identifying these barriers and reporting them to school staff can lead to effective interventions.

- Implementing School Policies: Teachers should adhere to and implement the school's attendance policies and procedures.
- Attendance Records: Accurate attendance records are crucial. Teachers should submit attendance data promptly to the school's administrative team. This information is used for reporting to local authorities and the Department for Education (DFE).
- Collaboration: Collaborating with other school staff, such as attendance officers, counsellors, and administrators, is essential for addressing attendance concerns effectively. Teamwork ensures a coordinated approach to supporting students.
- Supporting Positive Behaviour: Teachers can implement strategies to reinforce positive behaviour related to attendance, such as recognising attendance and punctuality.
- Safeguarding: Teachers should be aware of safeguarding protocols and report any concerns related to a child's safety or well-being promptly to the appropriate school staff.
- Professional Development: Continuous professional development will enhance teachers' skills in addressing attendance issues and implementing strategies to promote regular attendance.
- Role Modelling: Teachers can serve as role models by demonstrating punctuality and a commitment to their own professional responsibilities.

Support Staff: Teaching assistants, learning mentors and pastoral staff all play important roles in supporting and promoting attendance. Their contributions can have a significant impact on attendance and overall well-being.

Safeguarding Children and Attendance at Lutley

Safeguarding the interests of each child is everyone's responsibility and within the context of this school, we will adhere to "Working together to Safeguard Children" (2018) "Keeping Children Safe in Education" (2025) and the School's Safeguarding and

- Protecting children from maltreatment;
- Preventing impairment of children's health or development;
- Ensuring that children are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care;
- Taking action to enable all children to have the best life chances;
- Detecting early support through Early Help Assessment and engaging in multi-agency working.

Failing to attend school on a regular basis will be considered as a safeguarding matter and could be viewed as educational neglect. All staff are trained and made aware of possible reasons for extended absence from school. To facilitate effective multi-agency working, schools are expected to inform a pupil's social worker and/or youth offending team worker if there are unexplained absences from school.

We closely monitor attendance, absence and exclusions and our designated safeguarding lead will take appropriate action including notifying the local authority, investigating unexplained absence particularly where children go missing on repeated occasions and/or are missing for periods during the school day. Schools have a safeguarding duty in respect of their children, and as part of this should investigate any unexplained absences. Further information about schools' safeguarding responsibilities can be found in the Keeping Children Safe in Education statutory guidance 2025.

Child Missing in Education

Children missing education, particularly repeatedly, can be an indicator of abuse and neglect, including sexual abuse or exploitation, FGM, child criminal exploitation, mental health problems, risk of travelling to conflict zones, risk of female genital mutilation or risk of forced marriage.

Where a child has not returned to school for ten days after an authorised absence or is absent from school without authorisation for twenty consecutive school days, then a 'Missing Education Referral Form' must be downloaded, completed and returned to ChildrenMissingEducation@dudley.gov.uk and Education Support Service at ess.cs@dudley.gov.uk, after jointly making reasonable enquiries, the child may be removed from the admission register.

Suspension and Permanent Exclusion

Parents/carers can be issued with penalty notices if a child who has been suspended, contravenes the details set out in the suspension/permanent exclusion Letter, as to their whereabouts during the first five days of suspension or permanent exclusion.

A parent/carer must ensure that their child is not present in a public place during school hours without reasonable justification during the first five days of each and every suspension or permanent exclusion.

Recording information in the school's admission register

It is important that the school's admission register is accurate and kept up to date. Schools should regularly encourage Parents/Carers to inform them of any changes whenever they occur, through using existing communication channels such as regular emails and newsletters. School will ensure that the admission register is amended as soon as possible. This will assist both the school and local authority when making enquiries to locate children missing education.

All schools are required to notify the local authority within five days when a child's name is added to the admission register at a non-standard transition point. Schools will need to provide the local authority with all the information held within the admission register about the child. This duty does not apply when a child's name is entered in the admission register at a standard transition point- at the start of the first year of education normally provided by that school- unless the local authority requests for such information to be provided.

Special Educational Needs and/or Disability (SEND)

Hales Valley Trust is committed to ensuring that all pupils, including those with Special Educational Needs and/or Disability (SEND), have access to a high-quality education in a supportive and inclusive environment. Regular attendance is crucial for all pupils to achieve their full potential, and we are dedicated to providing the necessary support to ensure that pupils with SEND can attend school regularly and benefit from their education.

Legal Framework

This section of our attendance policy is informed by the following legislation and guidance:

- Education Act 1996: Parents are legally responsible for ensuring their child attends school regularly. Schools must maintain accurate attendance records and report absences to the local authority.
- Equality Act 2010: Schools must take reasonable steps to avoid substantial disadvantage to disabled pupils caused by school policies or practices 2.
- Children and Families Act 2014: Schools must use their best endeavours to meet the needs of pupils with SEND.
- School Attendance (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2024: Schools must maintain an admission register and an attendance register and follow specific procedures for recording and reporting attendance.
- SEND code of practice
- Working together to improve school attendance August 2024

School Responsibilities

Early Identification: Schools aim to identify barriers to attendance for pupils with SEND as early as possible to provide timely and appropriate support. This includes regular monitoring of attendance patterns and early intervention when issues arise.

Individualised Support Plans

Where required, each pupil with SEND will have an individualised support plan that outlines specific strategies to support their attendance. This plan will be developed by the school SENCO in collaboration with parents, teachers and consultation with the pupil. Where absence meets the severe category, social services and additional relevant professionals may advise and contribute towards these plans.

Reasonable Adjustments

Schools will make reasonable adjustments to support the attendance of pupils with SEND. Examples include:

- Meet and greet sessions
- Tailored support during transitions (e.g., moving between classes or schools)
- Support from the school ELSA/pastoral team

- Personalised lunchtime arrangements
- Adjustments to the school environment (e.g., seating arrangements, routines, sensory rooms)
- Amendments to uniforms
- Flexible start and finish times, inclusive of phased returns/possible temporary part time timetable

This list is not exhaustive, each case is individually reviewed, and the most suitable reasonable adjustments are made.

Communication and Collaboration

Schools will work closely with parents to support the attendance of pupils with SEND. Regular communication and meetings will be held to discuss attendance issues and strategies.

Multi-Agency Collaboration

Schools will collaborate with external agencies, such as educational psychologists, mental health support team, health professionals and social services, to provide comprehensive support for pupils with SEND. This may include the review and amendment of the EHCP to incorporate the additional or different attendance support identified.

Monitoring and Review

Attendance Monitoring: The attendance of pupils with SEND will be monitored closely to identify patterns with regular reviews to assess the effectiveness of support strategies.

Review Meetings: Regular review meetings will be held with parents and relevant professionals to discuss progress and make necessary adjustments to support plans.

Training and Development

Staff Training: All staff will receive training on the specific needs of pupils with SEND and strategies to support their attendance. This includes understanding conditions such as autism, ADHD, and sensory impairments.

Professional Development: Ongoing professional development opportunities will be provided on a case-by-case basis, to ensure staff are equipped with the latest knowledge and skills to support pupils with SEND.

Hales Valley Trust is committed to improve attendance; working in partnership to create an inclusive environment where all pupils, including those with mental or physical ill health or SEND/ disabilities can attend regularly and thrive. By implementing individualised support plans, making reasonable adjustments and fostering collaboration with parents and external agencies, we aim to ensure that every pupil has the opportunity to succeed.

Alternative provision

All children in alternative provision (AP) settings (code K) should attend school full-time and be dual registered (D code), including:

- Pupil Referral Units (PRUs)
- AP academies
- AP free schools
- Independent AP schools/providers

AP must notify the school if the child is not in attendance (daily). Schools should visit the children at their provision regularly and sufficiently frequently to ensure their well-being and progress. Detailed discussions are held between the school, provider, child and parent or carer in advance of the placement and at regular intervals throughout.

Flexi-schooling

Flexi-schooling is not the same as home schooling or Elective Home Education. Parents or carers who request flexi-attendance are asking for a pattern of provision which will involve both attendance at school and times when the child will receive educational provision at home. Flexi-schooling is full-time, although the provision may be split. Flexi-schooling is also different from temporary part-time attendance arrangements. Such arrangements are monitored and reviewed with the intention that the child be returned to full-time attendance as soon as possible. Arrangements for flexi-schooling can only be made at the request of a parent or carer with parental responsibility. This is not an arrangement that can be initiated by the school.

There is no legal right to flexi-schooling.

The Headteacher of the academy will consider requests for flexi schooling arrangements on a case-by-case basis. The Headteacher is under no obligation to agree requests for flexi schooling arrangements but as part of the decision making will liaise with parents/carers to determine whether flexi schooling would be appropriate and in the best interests of the child.

Attendance and Absence on Designated School Days (Flexi-schooling)

For pupils who are flexi-schooled, specific days will be formally agreed as designated school attendance days as part of the approved flexi-schooling arrangement. These days are recorded and treated as compulsory school attendance.

Where a flexi-schooled child does not attend school on a designated school day, the absence will be managed in line with this Attendance Policy and statutory attendance requirements.

This includes:

- Absence reporting procedures, whereby parents/carers must notify the school of the reason for absence on the first day of absence and in accordance with the school's usual absence reporting arrangements.
- First day calling procedures, which will be followed if the school has not been notified of the absence.
- Safeguarding procedures, including welfare checks, where a child is absent without explanation or where there are concerns regarding the child's wellbeing.

Absence on a designated school day will be recorded in the attendance register in accordance with the Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2006, and will be authorised or unauthorised based on the reason provided and the evidence available.

Repeated or unexplained absence on designated school days may result in:

- A review of the flexi-schooling arrangement
- Further discussions with parents/carers
- Referral to the Local Authority, where appropriate, including consideration under Children Missing Education (CME) procedures

Flexi-schooling arrangements remain at the discretion of the Executive Headteacher/Headteacher and may be withdrawn if attendance expectations, safeguarding requirements, or the child's best interests are not being met.

Policies and Practice

This attendance policy operates within the framework of statutory attendance regulations outlined in the Education (Pupil Registration) (England) Regulations 2006 and subsequent amendments. Lutley adhere to the following key attendance acts in the UK:

- Education Act 1996: The Education Act 1996 is the primary piece of legislation that sets out the legal framework for school attendance in England and Wales. It outlines the responsibilities of parents, carers, and schools in ensuring regular school attendance. Sections 444-447 of the Act deal with offenses related to non-attendance and penalties for parents and carers.
- Education (Pupil Registration) Regulations 2006: These regulations specify the procedures for registering pupils and maintaining attendance records in schools in England. They also define the circumstances in which a pupil can be marked as absent or present.

- Education (Pupil Registration) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2013: These regulations amended the 2006 regulations and introduced stricter rules on authorizing term-time holidays. Under these regulations, headteachers are only allowed to grant leave of absence in exceptional circumstances.
- School Attendance Code of Practice: The School Attendance Code of Practice provides guidance to schools, local authorities, and parents on the law and procedures relating to school attendance and absence. It sets out the principles for promoting good attendance and dealing with poor attendance.
- Local Authority School Attendance Guidance: Each local authority in the UK may provide its own guidance and policies on school attendance. Schools should be aware of and follow the specific guidance issued by their local authority.
- Department for Education (DFE) Guidance: The DFE periodically issues guidance documents and updates related to school attendance. Schools should stay informed about the latest DFE guidance 2024 and follow any recommendations or requirements outlined in these documents.
- Child Employment Legislation: Legislation such as the Children and Young Persons Act 1933 and the Children (Performances) Regulations 1968 govern the employment and attendance of children involved in performances, modelling, and other activities outside of school hours.
- Children Missing Education (CME) Statutory Guidance: This guidance outlines the responsibilities of local authorities in identifying and tracking children who may be missing education, including those who are not on a school roll or are not receiving suitable education.
- Section 19 of the Education Act 1996 (England and Wales): Outlines the duty of local authorities in ensuring that suitable education is provided for children of compulsory school age.

Appendix 2 - Definitions

In the context of school attendance and education in the UK, the terms "Persistent Absence," "Risk of Persistent Absence," and "Severe Absence" are used to describe different levels of irregular attendance by students. These terms are important for tracking and addressing attendance issues.

Risk of Persistent Absence:

Definition: The term "Risk of Persistent Absence" refers to a situation in which a student's attendance is at a level that suggests they are at risk of becoming persistently absent.

Threshold: While there is no specific threshold for "Risk of Persistent Absence," it is typically used to describe students whose attendance is consistently low and becoming a concern, as the school communicates to parents in days, we identify 10 days or more as Risk of PA and we will follow internal school procedures.

Persistent Absence:

Definition: Persistent Absence is a term used to describe a level of student absence from school that is considered to be a significant cause for concern.

Threshold: In England, a student is considered to be persistently absent when they have an attendance rate of 90% or below. This means they have missed 10% or more of their school sessions.

Severe Absence (or Severe Persistent Absence):

Definition: The term "Severe Absence" or "Severe Persistent Absence" is used to describe the most serious cases of non-attendance.

Threshold: Particular focus and support will be provided to pupils who are absent from school more than they are present (those missing 50% or more of school). These severely absent pupils may find it more difficult to be in school or face bigger barriers to their regular attendance and as such are likely to need more intensive support across a range of external agency partners.

Absence Definitions

- Arrival at school after the register has closed.
- Not attending school for any reason.

Authorised Absence

- An absence for sickness for which the school has granted leave.
- Medical or dental appointments which unavoidably fall during school time, for which the school has granted leave.
- Religious or cultural observances for which the school has granted leave
- An absence due to a family emergency

Unauthorised Absence

- Parents keeping children off school unnecessarily or without reason.
- Absences which have never been properly explained.
- Arrival at school after the register has closed.
- Absence due to shopping, looking after other children or birthdays.
- Absence due to day trips and holidays in term-time which have not been agreed.
- Leaving school for no reason during the day.

Appendix 3 – Late Collection Charges

As stated within the policy, it is not the duty of the school to provide childcare after the end of the school day. Where late collection is a regular occurrence, records will be maintained by the school, concerns discussed, and charges applied. This will take place after 3 recorded late collections.

For every 15-minute block a child/children are left at school at the end of the school day, there will be a £5 charge per child. Charges can be seen in the table below:

Collection Time End of school day: 3.30pm	Charge (Please note that charges are per child)
3.45pm-4:00pm	£5.00 per Child
4:01pm-4.15pm	£10.00 per Child
4.16pm-4.30pm	£15.00 per Child

If a child is persistently being collected late to avoid the late collection charge i.e. a child regularly collected at 3.35pm, then we may administer penalty charges on an individual basis.

There is no childcare provision available for children not collected at the end of the school day OR Parents and carers should not assume that their child/children would be admitted into after school club provision where it is available on site.

School's attendance policy states that absences during term time will not be authorised unless the Headteacher/Head of School agrees there are exceptional circumstances and any absence will be recorded as unauthorised on the school's register. 2. Any continued absences will be followed up by the school, which may include a home visit or safe and well checks from the police. 7. I understand that this absence will result in a loss of learning which may have a negative impact on my child's academic and personal development. 8.
